

Aboriginal Literacy - What Works, What Doesn't

Perth Ambassador Hotel

6th April 2016 2:00pm – 4:30pm

(the day before the ACTA International Conference)

A Workshop hosted by the Kate Mullin Association

Attended by decision makers, thinkers & leaders in Aboriginal Literacy.

A great opportunity to:

- Listen to practitioners talk about their successes, failures and lessons learned
- Help formulate a program of projects for the future

Program:

- Speaker – Adriano Truscott (Principal, Wiluna Remote Community School)
- Panel Q&A session
- Break-out sessions
- Conclusions from break-out sessions

Opened by the Honourable Ken Wyatt AM, MP

Member for Hasluck, and first Aboriginal person to be elected to the House of Representatives; Patron of the Kate Mullin Association

Panel includes:

- Dr Rosemary Cahill (Director, Office of Early Childhood Development and Learning, Department of Education, WA)
- Prof Rhonda Oliver (Director of Research, School of Education, Curtin University)
- Brendan Franzone (Deputy Principal, Wongutha CAPS School, Esperance)

Registration Fee $100

To register, deposit $100 into BSB 036-150 A/C 21-9854 with your name in the reference field and send a confirmation e-mail to Don Burnside at donbev@iinet.net.au. We will e-mail back a tax invoice.

More information can be obtained on the web site:
www.katemullinassociation.org

THE Kate Mullin ASSOCIATION